SUBJECT:	Presentations on the DA in OTE Courses
	Introduction to CIA (ITCIA) - (10 runnings annually)
	An MG careerist gives an overview of the DA and selected DA office representatives discuss their areas of responsibility to newly hired professionals.
	<pre>Career Trainee Development Course (CTDC) - (Four runnings annually)</pre>
	The DA segment of the CTDC is introduced by an MG careerist on rotation to the Career Trainee Division followed by the DDA and talks by the DA Office Directors about their offices. Various other DA officers speak on specific topics, such as on DCI security and on overseas security support. is an interactive exercise which illustrates the activities of the DA. It concludes the DA portion of the CTDC.
	Administrative Career Trainee Course (ACTD) - (Has run once) - Run as needed by Career Trainee Division
	This is a close look at the DA and its functions for DA-bound CTs. A wide range of speakers representing various DA activities address this group.
	New Analyst Course (NAC) - (Six runnings annually)
	An OTE instructor presents a 30-minute overview of the Directorate of Administration for new analysts in the Directorate of Intelligence. The course includes overviews on all four Directorates, because NAC students do not attend the Introduction to CIA.
	Advanced Intelligence Seminar (AIS) - (Four runnings annually)
	The Advanced Intelligence Seminar is conducted for senior Agency officers (GS 14 - SIS). A senior representative of the DA addresses the students on the DA's perspectives on how the Agency will cope with ongoing domestic and international trends over the next five years.
3	. We will be glad to provide any further information on OTE courses.
